" BIOGRAPHY "

On Wednesday and Thursday, December 6 and 7, the Theatre Group will present its fall production, "Biography" by S.N. Behrman with Maria Kingston as Marion, the artist whose life has been so interesting that a biography can be written about it. Ken Sancier will play Richard Kurt, the current love interest in Marion's life.

Ablly supporting them will be such new comers to the boards of the B.N.L. Theatre as Wilma Sacks, Leo Lutwak, John Gorr, and Marotte Sinex. Stan Kramer, who will be remembered from "The Male Animal" and Norma "Chris" Christopher, of "Dark Tower" complete the cast which is under the guiding hand of Ev Hafner. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Theatre Group or at the door. For special reservations or information, call Ellen Reidy, Ext. 2301.

A preview performance of "Biography" will be given at The Nassau Sanatorium, Farmingdale, on Monday, December 4. This will be the second time a performance has been previewed off the site, lending a "finished production" air to the performances presented on the site. "The Dark Tower" was previewed at Pilgrim State Hospital, Brentwood.
